is the story of a 50 year old common man trying to survive in the fast, competitive and overzealous city of Mumbai. Starting with a job at a gas station, Hernando initially earns his living from selling potatoes and tea bags. Then he begins his path to success, working for money, not for pleasure. 2014, USA, drama Director: Jonas Mekas Cast: Kevin James, Molly Shannon, Emma Duse, Michael Keaton, Monica Bellucci, Rachel Bilson and others. The protagonist of the film is an unlucky writer. During a violent argument with a friend on religious topics, he appropriates someone else's idea. To get a positive response to his lawsuit from the court, he must write a book that turns out to be a paranoid novel that poisons the lives of thousands of people.
