At this time SnipeRight can bid up to 5/minutes. SnipeRight is more efficient than pure manual bidding in that it bids automatically and continuously, unlike manual bidding which requires you to wait for the auction to close. The quantity of products sold through manual bidding is small. SnipeRight is significantly faster and more efficient than manual bidding, with bids placed as fast as one second before the auction is closed. The quantity of products sold is not limited. If you have three to five auctions up at the same time, or are working closely with someone else, then SnipeRight may not be suitable for you. Features: ? SnipeRight Professional Crack +

Now you can Snipe right on all eBay auctions (Pro, Standard and Gold) without keeping your PC up all night, or keeping it turned on while you're at work.
SnipeRight allows you to Snipe right on eBay auctions without disturbing your family or your colleagues. SnipeRight will bid the absolute minimum required to win your auction, and won't do anything to increase the price of the auction.
SnipeRight also compares the maximum bid price you specify with the actual close price of the auction. So if the auction is close to its limit, SnipeRight will bid the maximum. This means that you're sure to get the maximum value for your items, and your competitors are not able to bid against you. SnipeRight will even beep you when the auction is about to close so you can stop it. This saves you money, and makes SnipeRight easy to use. You don't need to keep your PC up all night.

Because SnipeRight uses our high-performance servers to place bids, it has very accurate timers. The timing of your bids is accurate to within milliseconds. This timing enables you to beat other bidders and even foil other sniping programs. SnipeRight has auto-upgrade functionality that will prompt you when there is a software update available. Even though sniping is legal, it can provoke hostility from the seller or other bidders. SnipeRight has a "friendly" mode that you can set, which simulates normal bidding activity on auctions. If the seller or other bidders look into the history after you've won the auction, they'll see you've placed occasional bids throughout the auction. These friendly bids are designed not to push up the price of the auction significantly (they always stay within a percentage that you can set in the options page.) You can report on your sniping from anywhere on the Net, provided you have a licensed copy of SnipeRight. This service is free of charge and availalble to all registered users.
