A breath of sweet desert air hits when you set foot on the scorching lands of Jakar. The great grasslands near the mountain home of the kushite god have been overrun by creatures of the desert. There is new life, new hope here. The waste is ripe with new opportunities, which is why you have come. It is time for you to tell your story! In Jakar Valley, the deserts of Egypt have shaped the land into the land of the dead. Strange creatures roam the expanse. Heresies have sprung up. Follow the signs of the devil and join these people. In the Valley of the Dry Rivers, the deserts have torn the life from the land. An old order gives way to new. The time for legends is now. However, before you get too far, you have a lot to get acquainted with:

The Desert Folk The Desert Folk is a noble people, which has been living in the Sahara for thousands of years. They were once nomads, roaming the African deserts. Over the years, they have settled and turned into farmers, but even when they only have water to drink, they drink from clear and pure running waters.

The Desert Gods The Desert Gods are the nomadic people of the desert. They have been wandering in the desert for generations and know the land in every way. They have become self-sufficient and developed many useful techniques.

The Desert Magics The Desert Magics follow a series of tribal laws, which come from the desert. Each tribe has their own customs and beliefs. They don't know much about the outside world, but they have been very well at defending their gods and lands.

The Desert Heresies The Desert Heresies are a sect of desert people who live near the valleys. They have been living there for hundreds of years. They believe that they have found a way to relieve their misery, but they have not. They are ultimately cowards who live to perish.

The Desert Vultures The Desert Vultures are a nomadic people who have been living in the deserts for centuries. They are a wise people, but their lives are surrounded by terror. They know that their numbers are dwindling and they are fighting a losing battle.
