Purchase your season pass and use your on-disc bonus. it could help if he does get out of there. And, folks, he's a leader. I think he's done a pretty good job of that. You know, Greg, I'll tell you what -- I'm just going to say this, and then I won't say anything else. How about that? I've been very good this year on a lot of things, not just with Baltimore. I've been good, for example, on not providing billions of dollars in loans to China. I've been very good -- GREGORY: That's a job he's taken on. BIDEN: That's a job he's taken on. GREGORY: That's a job he's taken on. BIDEN: On the ship industry. I've been very good on the auto loan situation. And in the savings and loan crisis, I helped the FDIC and others get in there. I was good on the trade deficit. And I've been very good on providing at least $5 billion in loans for small businesses. GREGORY: What's your take, though, on the conversations he's had with the Dalai Lama? Because you're one of the only Democrats right now, who, I think, are on the record saying these things. How does this measure up, as you see it? BIDEN: Well, you know, listen. There were a lot of different meanings to this thing. (LAUGHTER) BIDEN: He's been described as a terrorist. (LAUGHTER) BIDEN: He's been described as a Communist, you know. (LAUGHTER) BIDEN: I mean, there was -- there were, according to some people, a lot of implications about some things he said. But I think what people should take it for what it is -- which is, is this a small, private, personal conversation. And this was a private, personal discussion. I think that's what a lot of us were left with is that this was a private.
