Reviews and ratings for Arborists Certification Study Guide By Sharon J. Lilly Published by TBS has ordered seven more episodes of Life Sentence, the Court TV series starring T.W. Hannam (Sons Of Anarchy), John Hensley (Crimson Tide), and Valerie Mahnken (Breaking Bad). They are the first new episodes of the show since fall 2010. The new episodes are set to begin production in early 2014, with an expected debut on TBS in the fall. Life Sentence is produced for TBS by WWE Studios. Executive producers are Marc Vallée (Reno 911!) and Howard Bloom, along with Hannam and Hensley. Life Sentence is executive produced by John Lafia, Marc Vallée, Marc Melvin and Howard Bloom. Life Sentence premiered in August 2010. Since then, the show has won numerous television and festival awards including: nine Primetime Emmy nominations, nine Telly Awards, two ACTF awards, a 2010 Screen Actors Guild award for Outstanding Performance by an Ensemble in a Comedy Series, and two Las Vegas TV Critics Association awards. The 10-episode series chronicles the life of a bail bondsman who sets up shop in the Florida Keys. The series is based on a true story about the bondsman played by Hensley. It is a straight-to-series order that will debut this Fall. "We are excited to continue bringing the intense drama of John Hensley's character and the heartfelt story of the people he helps, to a new audience on TBS," said TBS general manager Thom Sherman. "Marc Vallée, Howard Bloom, Marc Melvin and John Lafia's beautifully crafted drama is definitely a show that should make its fans proud and we're thrilled to be able to continue to provide this wonderful story to our viewers." "We are thrilled to be working with TBS and the best writing team in the business to tell this incredible story with John Hensley and T.W. Hannam," added WWE Studios president Lorenzo di Bonaventura. "Marc Vallée is the most brilliant director I've ever worked with and Howard Bloom and Marc Melvin are brilliant producers
